

The Arts at Blessed Sacrament, NYC

152 W 71st, New York, NY, 10023

Calling out to music lovers...

The Church of The Blessed Sacrament is holding

CHOIR AUDITIONS

for the newly formed

Blessed Sacrament Choir

who will offer those who wish to join the chance to create quality music in an exciting atmosphere, surrounded by like-minded people, under the direction of recent Juilliard graduate Alessandro Pittorino.

The Blessed Sacrament Choir will be a volunteer group of singers whose primary function will be to provide high quality choral music for The Church of The Blessed Sacrament, both in liturgy and in concert.

What's the commitment?

The Choir will perform at the 12.30pm Mass on Sundays, special feast days such as Easter and Christmas, and at concerts featuring master choral works throughout the year. Rehearsals will occur every Tuesday night from 7pm- 8.30pm commencing on October 10th, 2017.

How do I join?

The Blessed Sacrament Choir is open to all above the age of 15. A brief audition is required so that the Director has a chance to meet you personally and hear your voice. The ideal singer will have a great love and passion for music and the arts, especially for sacred choral music. It is preferred that candidates can read music and have had some singing ability.

Please email Choir Director Alessandro Pittorino to arrange an audition at apittorino@blessedsacramentnyc.org

About ABS

The Arts at Blessed Sacrament, NYC is an organisation that promotes the arts and cultural life at The Church of the Blessed Sacrament on the Upper West Side, both in liturgy and in concert. Through engaging artists of the highest calibre, both emerging and established, ABS seeks to enrich the everyday lives of those who come to our services and performances by using art as a reflection of our humanity.